The 19th Amendment to the US Constitution
On May 21, 1919, the U.S. House of Representatives passed the 19th Amendment sending it on to the states for ratification. In February 1920, New Mexico became the 32nd state to adopt the new measure. What is commonly known as "women's suffrage" became the law of the land on August 26, 1920.
